

Dear Chairman Powell:

I am against further media consolidation. The evils and harm to the public are self evident -- there has been virtually no news coverage of this possible change in the law.

I only found out about what was happening from watching programs on my local PBS station.

The FCC is selling out to big business. Shame on you Chairman Powell.

Sincerely,
Jennifer A. Deuster-Loesch